Account name	Business 125 Day Saver - Issue 2
What is the interest rate?	You can choose to have interest paid monthly or annually. Annual Interest Monthly Interest
	AER/gross p.a. (variable)	AER/gross p.a. (variable)
	1.00% 1.00% Interest is calculated daily, and paid either annually on 31 March or monthly on the first working day of each calendar month.
	Interest can be paid into the account, into your Nominated Account, or any other Business Saver Account that you have with us. Please see the Business 125 Day Saver Account Specific Terms . Please see Additional Information below for further information on Nominated Accounts. We also pay interest when you close your account and we add this to the capital value of the account.
Can Nationwide change the interest rate?	Yes, the interest rate is variable. We can increase or decreas Business Savings General Terms and Conditions.	e the interest rate for any of the reasons set out in the
	Please see section C of the Business Savings General Terr the interest rates and how we will tell you about any rate ch
What would the estimated balance be	Interest rate AER/gross p.a. (variable)	Balance at end of 12 months with interest
after 12 months based on a £10,000 deposit?	Annual 1.00%	£10,100.00
	Monthly 1.00%	£10,100.46
	 This projection is provided for illustrative purposes only, it assumes that: Interest is paid into the account. No further deposits or withdrawals are made. There is no change to the interest rate.
How do I open and	To open this account you must be a:
manage my account?	 a) Privately or publicly owned limited company incorporated in the UK; b) Charity registered in the UK; c) Unincorporated body (e.g. Club, Parish Council) based in the UK; d) UK sole trader/partnership. AND
	 Have an annual turnover of less than £10 million. Are not listed under our ineligible companies found on our Business Savings FAQs.
	NB. You need to have a UK based business account to use as your Nominated Account. This account must be in the name of your business and able to receive CHAPS payments. Your nominated account cannot be a Nationwide current account. If you don't have one, you'll need to set one up before submitting an application. Please see section B of the Business Savings General Terms and Conditions for further details.

Building Society

 your nominated account or into an existing Business Saver account in your business name. Notice of withdrawal starts on the day we receive complete instructions from you, provided we get them before 4pm. If we receive a notice when our office is closed or after 4pm on a working day, then we'll process it on the next working day. If your notice expires on a day when our office isn't open for banking business, we'll act on yow withdrawal on the next working day. Please note that if the account balance falls below £5,000, then you won't earn interest until the account return the minimum balance of £5,000. Additional information If there has been a transaction on your account a full statement will be issued on the first working day of the next calendar month. Your Nominated Account Your Nominated Account To existing Business Saver account in your business name is where we'll send your money to when you make a withdrawal request. Your nominated account must be a UK based account. Your nominated account cannot be a Nationwide current account. Please see section B of the Business Savings General Terms and Conditions for further details. Interest rate definitions explained AER stands for Annual Equivalent Rate and illustrates what the interest rate would be if interest was paid and compounded once each year. Gross p.a. is the interest rate without tax deducted. 	How do I open and	You can open this account:
 You'll need to have a balance of at least £1 to keep your account. You an manage your account: You can manage your account: By Post, Fax or signed PDF instruction attached to an email. The minimum amount you can withdraw money from your account by giving us at least 125 days' notice via post, fax or a signed PDF instruction attached to an email. The minimum amount you can withdraw is £500. When we receive your payment instruction you will receive confirmation of the date your funds will be released your ontinated account or into an existing Business Saver account in your business name. Notice of withdrawal starts on the day we receive confirmation of the date your funds will be released your notice expires on a day when our office isn't open for banking business, we'll act on you withdraw all on the next working day. If your notice expires on a day when our office isn't open for banking business, we'll act on you withdraw all on the next working day. Please note that if the account balance falls below £5,000, then you won't earn interest until the account return the minimum balance of £5,000. Midditional information If there has been a transaction on your account a full statement will be issued on the first working day of the next calculated Account Your Nominated Account Your Nominated Account or existing Business Saver account in your business name is where we'll send your monitated account or existing Business Saver account must be a UK based account. Your monitated account canot be a Nationvide current account. Please see section B of the Business Savings General Terms and Conditions for further details. Interest rate definitions explained Affe stands for Annual Equivalent Rate and illustrates what the interest rate would be if interest was paid and compopounded once early year. Gross p.a. Is the intere
 You'll need to have a balance of at least £1 to keep your account open. You can make as many deposits as you want as long as your balance in the account does not exceed £10,000,000. You can manage your account: By Post, Fax or signed PDF instruction attached to an email. Can I withdraw money? Yes, you can withdraw money from your account by giving us at least 125 days' notice via post, fax or a signed PD instruction attached to an email using our 'Withdrawing money from your Business Savings account' form. The minimum amount you can withdraw is £500. When we receive your payment instruction you will receive confirmation of the date your funds will be released your nominated account or into an existing Business Saver account in your business name. Notice of withdrawal starts on the day we receive complete instructions from you, provided we get them before 4pm. If we receive a notice when our office is closed or after 4pm on a working day, then we'll process it on the next working day. If your notice expires on a day when our office isn't open for banking business, we'll act on you withdrawal on the next working day. Please note that if the account balance falls below £5,000, then you won't earn interest until the account return the minimum balance of £5,000. Additional information If there has been a transaction on your account a full statement will be issued on the first working day of the nex calendar month. Your Nominated Account Your Nominated Account C working Business Saver account in your business name is where we'll send your money to when you make a withdrawal request. Your nominated account. Your nominated account cannot be a Nationwide current account. Please see section B of the Business Savings General Terms and Conditions for further details. Interest rate definitions explained<th rowspan="2">(continued)</th><th colspan="2" rowspan="2">• You'll need at least £5,000 to open your account.</th>	(continued)	• You'll need at least £5,000 to open your account.
You can make as many deposits as you want as long as your balance in the account does not exceed £10,000,000. You can manage your account: By Post, Fax or signed PDF instruction attached to an email. Can I withdraw money? Yes, you can withdraw money from your account by giving us at least 125 days' notice via post, fax or a signed PD instruction attached to an email using our 'Withdrawing money from your Business Savings account' form. The minimum amount you can withdraw is £500. When we receive your payment instruction you will receive confirmation of the date your funds will be released your nominated account or into an existing Business Saver account in your business name. Notice of withdrawal starts on the day we receive complete instructions from you, provided we get them before 4pm. If we receive a notice when our office is closed or after 4pm on a working day, then well process it on the next working day. If your notice expires on a day when our office isn't open for banking business, we'll act on you withdrawal on the next working day. Please note that if the account balance falls below £5,000, then you won't earn interest until the account return the minimum balance of £5,000. Xour Nominated Account Your Nominated Account or existing Business Saver account in your business name is where we'll send your money to when you make awithdrawal request. Your nominated account to urmoney to when you make awithdrawal request. Your nominated account to urmoney to when you make awithdrawal request. Your nominated account to rominated account cannot be a Nationwide current account. Please see section B of the Business Savings General Terms and Conditions for further details. Interest rate definitions explained Active trans and Conditions for further details. Interest rate definitions explained Active trans and conditions for further details. Interest rate definitions explained Active trans and conditions for further details. Interest rate definitions explained Active trans and conditions for further detail
£10,000,000. You can manage your account: • By Post, Fax or signed PDF instruction attached to an email. Can I withdraw money? Yes, you can withdraw money from your account by giving us at least 125 days' notice via post, fax or a signed P instruction attached to an email using our 'Withdrawing money from your Business Savings account' form. The minimum amount you can withdraw is £500. When we receive your payment instruction you will receive confirmation of the date your funds will be released your nominated account or into an existing Business Saver account in your business name. Notice of withdrawal starts on the day we receive complete instructions from you, provided we get them before 4pm. If we receive a notice when our office is closed or after 4pm on a working day, then we'll process it on the next working day. If your notice expires on a day when our office isn't open for banking business, we'll act on yo withdrawal on the next working day. Please note that if the account balance falls below £5,000, then you won't earn interest until the account return the minimum balance of £5,000. Additional information If there has been a transaction on your account a full statement will be issued on the first working day of the next calendar month. Your Nominated Account Your Nominated Account Your Nominated Account to existing Business Saver account in your business name is where we'll send your money to when you make a withdrawal request. Your nominated account. Your moninated account cannot be a Nationwide current account. Please see section B of the Business Savings General Terms and Conditions for further detalls. Intere
 By Post, Fax or signed PDF instruction attached to an email. Can I withdraw money? Yes, you can withdraw money from your account by giving us at least 125 days' notice via post, fax or a signed P instruction attached to an email using our 'Withdrawing money from your Business Savings account' form. The minimum amount you can withdraw is £500. When we receive your payment instruction you will receive confirmation of the date your funds will be released your nominated account or into an existing Business Saver account in your business name. Notice of withdrawal starts on the day we receive complete instructions from you, provided we get them before 4pm. If we receive a notice when our office is closed or after 4pm on a working day, then we'll process it on the next working day. If your notice expires on a day when our office isn't open for banking business, we'll act on yo withdrawal on the next working day. Please note that if the account balance falls below £5,000, then you won't earn interest until the account return the minimum balance of £5,000. Additional information If there has been a transaction on your account a full statement will be issued on the first working day of the nex calendar month. Your Nominated Account Your Nominated Account or existing Business Saver account in your business name is where we'll send your money to when you make a withdrawal request. Your nominated account, Your nominated account cannot be a Nationwide current account. Please see section B of the Business Savings General Terms and Conditions for further details. Interest rate definitions explained AER stands for Annual Equivalent Rate and illustrates what the interest rate would be if interest was paid and compounded once each year. Gross p.a. is the interest rate without tax deducted. The tax information provided is based on our understanding of
Can I withdraw money? Yes, you can withdraw money from your account by giving us at least 125 days' notice via post, fax or a signed P instruction attached to an email using our 'Withdrawing money from your Business Savings account' form. The minimum amount you can withdraw is £500. When we receive your payment instruction you will receive confirmation of the date your funds will be released your nominated account or into an existing Business Saver account in your business name. Notice of withdrawal starts on the day we receive complete instructions from you, provided we get them before 4pm. If we receive a notice when our office is closed or after 4pm on a working day, then we'll process it on the next working day. If your notice expires on a day when our office isn't open for banking business, we'll act on yo withdrawal on the next working day. Please note that if the account balance falls below £5,000, then you won't earn interest until the account return the minimum balance of £5,000. Additional information If there has been a transaction on your account a full statement will be issued on the first working day of the next aclendar month. Your Nominated Account Your Nominated Account Your Nominated Account cannot be a Nationwide current account, Please see section B of the Business Savings General Terms and Conditions for further details. Interest rate definitions explained AER stands for Annual Equivalent Rate and illustrates what the interest rate would be if interest was paid and compounded once each year. Gross p.a. is the interest rate without tax deducted. The tax information provided is based on our understanding of current law and HM Revenue & Customs practic bot		You can manage your account:
Additional information If there has been a transaction on your account a full statement will be issued on the first working day of the neer calendar month. Your Nominated Account Your Nominated Account or suisting Business Saver account in your business, we'll send your moninated account on the day we receive complete instructions from you, provided we get them before 4pm. If we receive a notice when our office is closed or after 4pm on a working day, then we'll process it on the next working day. If your notice expires on a day when our office isn't open for banking business, we'll act on yo withdrawal on the next working day. Please note that if the account balance falls below £5,000, then you won't earn interest until the account return the minimum balance of £5,000. Additional information If there has been a transaction on your account a full statement will be issued on the first working day of the next calendar month. Your Nominated Account Your Nominated Account or existing Business Saver account in your business name is where we'll send your money to when you make a withdrawal request. Your nominated account, Your nominated account function mote to a Nationwide current account. Please see section B of the Business Savings General Terms and Conditions for further details. Interest rate definitions explained AER stands for Annual Equivalent Rate and illustrates what the interest rate would be if interest was paid and compounded once each year. Gross p.a. is the interest rate without tax deducted. The tax information provided is based on our understanding of current law and HM Revenue & Customs practice both of which may change.		• By Post, Fax or signed PDF instruction attached to an email.
Additional information If there has been a transaction on your account a full statement will be issued on the first working day of the neer calendar month. Your Nominated Account Your Nominated Account or existing Business Saver account in your business, we'll send your monthe mater account return the minimum balance of £5,000. Additional information If there has been a transaction on your account a full statement will be issued on the first working day of the neer calendar month. Your Nominated Account Your Nominated Account or each year. Additional information If there has been a transaction on your account a full statement will be issued on the first working day of the neer calendar month. Your Nominated Account Your Nominated Account or existing Business Saver account in your business name is where we'll send your money to when you make a withdrawal request. Your nominated account tamot be a Nationwide current account. Please see section B of the Business Savings General Terms and Conditions for further details. Interest rate definitions explained • AER stands for Annual Equivalent Rate and illustrates what the interest rate would be if interest was paid and compounded once each year. • Gross p.a. is the interest rate without tax deducted. The tax information provided is based on our understanding of current law and HM Revenue & Customs practice both of which may change.
 When we receive your payment instruction you will receive confirmation of the date your funds will be released your nominated account or into an existing Business Saver account in your business name. Notice of withdrawal starts on the day we receive complete instructions from you, provided we get them before 4pm. If we receive a notice when our office is closed or after 4pm on a working day, then we'll process it on the next working day. If your notice expires on a day when our office isn't open for banking business, we'll act on you withdrawal on the next working day. Please note that if the account balance falls below £5,000, then you won't earn interest until the account return the minimum balance of £5,000. Additional information If there has been a transaction on your account a full statement will be issued on the first working day of the next calendar month. Your Nominated Account Your Nominated Account Your Nominated Account be a Nationwide current account. Please see section B of the Business Savings General Terms and Conditions for further details. Interest rate definitions explained AER stands for Annual Equivalent Rate and illustrates what the interest rate would be if interest was paid and compounded once each year. Gross p.a. is the interest rate without tax deducted. The tax information provided is based on our understanding of current law and HM Revenue & Customs practice both of which may change. 	Can I withdraw money?
 your nominated account or into an existing Business Saver account in your business name. Notice of withdrawal starts on the day we receive complete instructions from you, provided we get them before 4pm. If we receive a notice when our office is closed or after 4pm on a working day, then we'll process it on the next working day. If your notice expires on a day when our office isn't open for banking business, we'll act on yowithdrawal on the next working day. Please note that if the account balance falls below £5,000, then you won't earn interest until the account return the minimum balance of £5,000. Additional information If there has been a transaction on your account a full statement will be issued on the first working day of the next calendar month. Your Nominated Account Your Nominated Account To existing Business Saver account in your business name is where we'll send your money to when you make a withdrawal request. Your nominated account must be a UK based account. Your nominated account cannot be a Nationwide current account. Please see section B of the Business Savings General Terms and Conditions for further details. Interest rate definitions explained AER stands for Annual Equivalent Rate and illustrates what the interest rate would be if interest was paid and compounded once each year. Gross p.a. is the interest rate without tax deducted. The tax information provided is based on our understanding of current law and HM Revenue & Customs practice both of which may change. 		The minimum amount you can withdraw is £500.
 4pm. If we receive a notice when our office is closed or after 4pm on a working day, then we'll process it on the next working day. If your notice expires on a day when our office isn't open for banking business, we'll act on you withdrawal on the next working day. Please note that if the account balance falls below £5,000, then you won't earn interest until the account return the minimum balance of £5,000. Additional information If there has been a transaction on your account a full statement will be issued on the first working day of the next calendar month. Your Nominated Account Your Nominated Account or existing Business Saver account in your business name is where we'll send your money to when you make a withdrawal request. Your nominated account must be a UK based account. Your nominated account cannot be a Nationwide current account. Please see section B of the Business Savings General Terms and Conditions for further details. Interest rate definitions explained AER stands for Annual Equivalent Rate and illustrates what the interest rate would be if interest was paid and compounded once each year. Gross p.a. is the interest rate without tax deducted. The tax information provided is based on our understanding of current law and HM Revenue & Customs practice both of which may change. 		When we receive your payment instruction you will receive confirmation of the date your funds will be released into your nominated account or into an existing Business Saver account in your business name.
Additional information If your notice expires on a day when our office isn't open for banking business, we'll act on yowithdrawal on the next working day. Please note that if the account balance falls below £5,000, then you won't earn interest until the account return the minimum balance of £5,000. Additional information If there has been a transaction on your account a full statement will be issued on the first working day of the nex calendar month. Your Nominated Account Your Nominated Account or existing Business Saver account in your business name is where we'll send your money to when you make a withdrawal request. Your nominated account must be a UK based account. Your nominated account cannot be a Nationwide current account. Please see section B of the Business Savings General Terms and Conditions for further details. Interest rate definitions explained • AER stands for Annual Equivalent Rate and illustrates what the interest rate would be if interest was paid and compounded once each year. • Gross p.a. is the interest rate without tax deducted. The tax information provided is based on our understanding of current law and HM Revenue & Customs practice both of which may change.		Notice of withdrawal starts on the day we receive complete instructions from you, provided we get them before withdrawal on the next working day. Please note that if the account balance falls below £5,000, then you won't earn interest until the account return the minimum balance of £5,000. Additional information If there has been a transaction on your account a full statement will be issued on the first working day of the nexcalendar month. Your Nominated Account Your Nominated Account or existing Business Saver account in your business name is where we'll send your money to when you make a withdrawal request. Your nominated account must be a UK based account. Your nominated account cannot be a Nationwide current account. Please see section B of the Business Savings General Terms and Conditions for further details. Interest rate definitions explained AER stands for Annual Equivalent Rate and illustrates what the interest rate would be if interest was paid and compounded once each year. Gross p.a. is the interest rate without tax deducted. The tax information provided is based on our understanding of current law and HM Revenue & Customs practice both of which may change.
Additional information If there has been a transaction on your account a full statement will be issued on the first working day of the nexcalendar month. Your Nominated Account Your Nominated Account or existing Business Saver account in your business name is where we'll send your money to when you make a withdrawal request. Your nominated account must be a UK based account. Your nominated account cannot be a Nationwide current account. Please see section B of the Business Savings General Terms and Conditions for further details. Interest rate definitions explained • AER stands for Annual Equivalent Rate and illustrates what the interest rate would be if interest was paid and compounded once each year. • Gross p.a. is the interest rate without tax deducted. The tax information provided is based on our understanding of current law and HM Revenue & Customs practice both of which may change.
Additional information If there has been a transaction on your account a full statement will be issued on the first working day of the nex calendar month. Your Nominated Account Your Nominated Account or existing Business Saver account in your business name is where we'll send your money to when you make a withdrawal request. Your nominated account must be a UK based account. Your nominated account cannot be a Nationwide current account. Please see section B of the Business Savings General Terms and Conditions for further details. Interest rate definitions explained • AER stands for Annual Equivalent Rate and illustrates what the interest rate would be if interest was paid and compounded once each year. • Gross p.a. is the interest rate without tax deducted. The tax information provided is based on our understanding of current law and HM Revenue & Customs practice both of which may change.		Please note that if the account balance falls below £5,000, then you won't earn interest until the account returns to calendar month. Your Nominated Account Your Nominated Account or existing Business Saver account in your business name is where we'll send your money to when you make a withdrawal request. Your nominated account must be a UK based account. Your nominated account cannot be a Nationwide current account. Please see section B of the Business Savings General Terms and Conditions for further details. Interest rate definitions explained AER stands for Annual Equivalent Rate and illustrates what the interest rate would be if interest was paid and compounded once each year. Gross p.a. is the interest rate without tax deducted. The tax information provided is based on our understanding of current law and HM Revenue & Customs practice both of which may change. 		the minimum balance of £5,000.
 calendar month. Your Nominated Account Your Nominated Account or existing Business Saver account in your business name is where we'll send your money to when you make a withdrawal request. Your nominated account must be a UK based account. Your nominated account cannot be a Nationwide current account. Please see section B of the Business Savings General Terms and Conditions for further details. Interest rate definitions explained AER stands for Annual Equivalent Rate and illustrates what the interest rate would be if interest was paid and compounded once each year. Gross p.a. is the interest rate without tax deducted. The tax information provided is based on our understanding of current law and HM Revenue & Customs practice both of which may change.
 Your Nominated Account or existing Business Saver account in your business name is where we'll send your money to when you make a withdrawal request. Your nominated account must be a UK based account. Your nominated account cannot be a Nationwide current account. Please see section B of the Business Savings General Terms and Conditions for further details. Interest rate definitions explained AER stands for Annual Equivalent Rate and illustrates what the interest rate would be if interest was paid and compounded once each year. Gross p.a. is the interest rate without tax deducted. The tax information provided is based on our understanding of current law and HM Revenue & Customs practice both of which may change. 	Additional information	If there has been a transaction on your account a full statement will be issued on the first working day of the next calendar month.
 money to when you make a withdrawal request. Your nominated account must be a UK based account. Your nominated account cannot be a Nationwide current account. Please see section B of the Business Savings General Terms and Conditions for further details. Interest rate definitions explained AER stands for Annual Equivalent Rate and illustrates what the interest rate would be if interest was paid and compounded once each year. Gross p.a. is the interest rate without tax deducted. The tax information provided is based on our understanding of current law and HM Revenue & Customs practice both of which may change. 		Your Nominated Account nominated account cannot be a Nationwide current account. Please see section B of the Business Savings General Terms and Conditions for further details. Interest rate definitions explained AER stands for Annual Equivalent Rate and illustrates what the interest rate would be if interest was paid and compounded once each year. Gross p.a. is the interest rate without tax deducted. The tax information provided is based on our understanding of current law and HM Revenue & Customs practice both of which may change.
 General Terms and Conditions for further details. Interest rate definitions explained AER stands for Annual Equivalent Rate and illustrates what the interest rate would be if interest was paid and compounded once each year. Gross p.a. is the interest rate without tax deducted. The tax information provided is based on our understanding of current law and HM Revenue & Customs practice both of which may change.
 Interest rate definitions explained AER stands for Annual Equivalent Rate and illustrates what the interest rate would be if interest was paid and compounded once each year. Gross p.a. is the interest rate without tax deducted. The tax information provided is based on our understanding of current law and HM Revenue & Customs practice both of which may change.
 AER stands for Annual Equivalent Rate and illustrates what the interest rate would be if interest was paid and compounded once each year. Gross p.a. is the interest rate without tax deducted. The tax information provided is based on our understanding of current law and HM Revenue & Customs practice both of which may change.
 and compounded once each year. Gross p.a. is the interest rate without tax deducted. The tax information provided is based on our understanding of current law and HM Revenue & Customs practice both of which may change.
The tax information provided is based on our understanding of current law and HM Revenue & Customs practice both of which may change.
both of which may change.		• Gross p.a . is the interest rate without tax deducted.
		The tax information provided is based on our understanding of current law and HM Revenue & Customs practice,
The interest rate(s) is/are effective from 5 July 2022 and the other information in the Summary Box is effective		both of which may change.
The interest interest is an electric ment of sury Lotte and the other information in the outfinding Doxid Checkive		The interest rate(s) is/are effective from 5 July 2022 and the other information in the Summary Box is effective from 5 July 2022.

All our accounts are for your short and long term business savings needs. They are not suitable for use as a business current account or the day to day transactions of running a business.

You can order all our publications in large print, Braille, or audio recording. Just let us know by calling 0800 66 55 11 or emailing us at BusinessSavings@nationwide.co.uk

Nationwide Building Society is authorised by the Prudential Regulation Authority and regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority and the Prudential Regulation Authority under registration number 106078. You can confirm our registration on the FCA's website fca.org.uk. Most Business and Corporate Saver accounts are not regulated. Some businesses and charities may be eligible for protection under the Financial Services Compensation Scheme (FSCS). Nationwide is not responsible for the content of external websites. Nationwide's head office is at Nationwide House, Pipers Way, Swindon, SN38 1NW.

CS736JUN2022

Building Society

Page 2 of 2